How to tether Bluetooth

Pair your phone via Bluetooth: Overview

Step 1 – Click on "Setup".

Step 2 – Click on "Bluetooth".

Step 3 – If no device is registered a message will be displayed.

Step 4 – Ensure Bluetooth on your smartphone is switched on.

Step 5 – Click on "Add new device".

Step 6 – Click on your device.

Step 7 – Select "pair".

Step 8 – Your device is connected to the multimedia system.

Step 9 – Multiple devices can be connected to the multimedia system.

Step 10 – Bluetooth tethering : APPLE users turn on "personal Hotspot". ANDROID users select "Tethering & portable hotspot" and "Bluetooth tethering".

MyT

Pair your phone via Bluetooth: Step 1
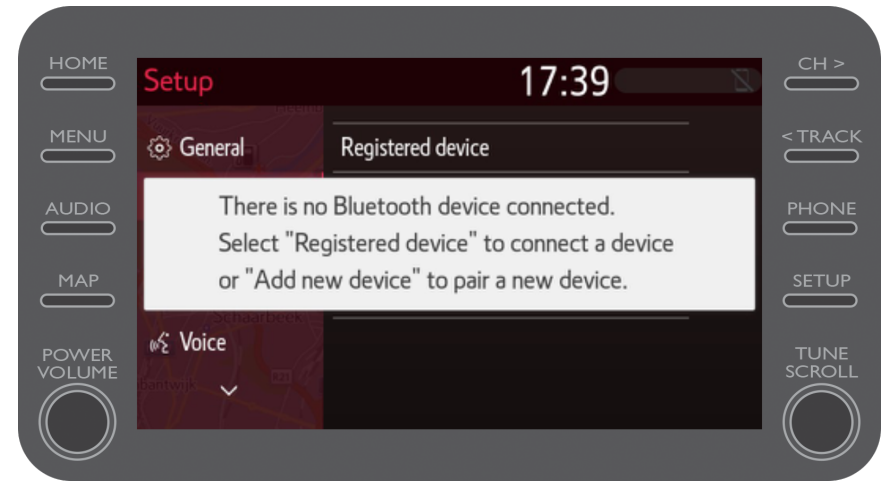

Click on "Setup".

Pair your phone via Bluetooth: Step 2

Click on "Bluetooth".
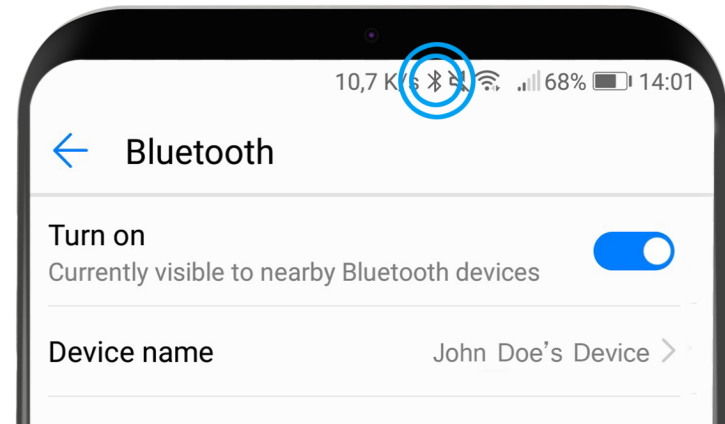

MyT

Pair your phone via Bluetooth: Step 3

If no Bluetooth device is registered, this screen will be displayed.

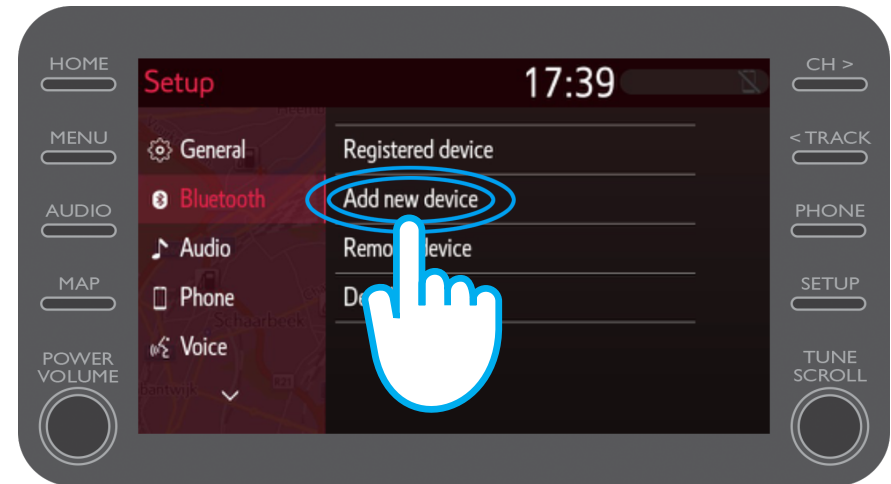

MyT

Ensure Bluetooth on your smartphone is switched on.

The Bluetooth symbol should be displayed.

Pair your phone via Bluetooth: Step 5

Click on "Add new device"

Pair your phone via Bluetooth:

Click on your device.

HOME
MENU
AUDIO
MAP
POWER VOLUME

CH >
< TRACK
PHONE SETUP
TUNE SCROLL

Select your smart phone below.

Step 1:
John Doe's Device
Step 2:
Step 3:

If you cannot find...

MyT

Pair your phone via Bluetooth:

A request is sent to your device.
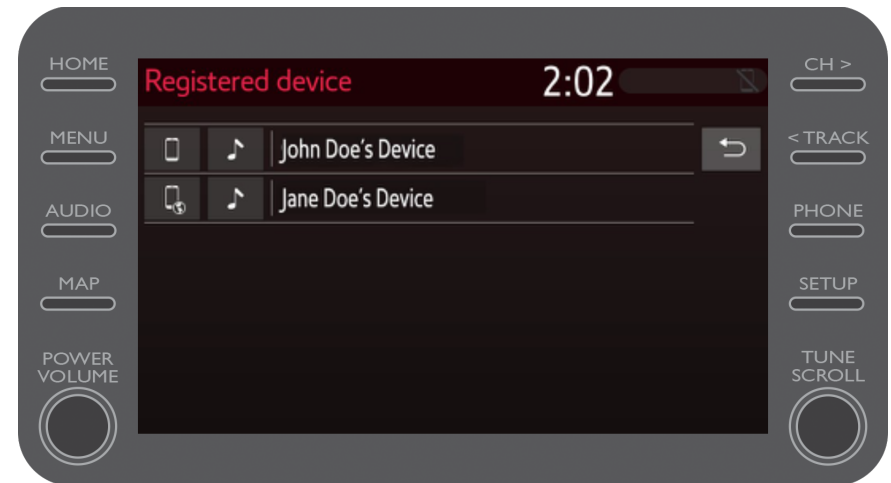

Select "Pair" on your device.

Pair your phone via Bluetooth: Step 8

Your device has been connected to the multimedia system.

Pair your phone via Bluetooth: Step 9

Multiple devices can be connected to the multimedia system.

Now that your smartphone is connected to the car by Bluetooth, enable Bluetooth tethering on your smartphone.

Depending on your phone type:
For APPLE users: Tether Bluetooth
1. Please connect your phone and your multimedia system to Bluetooth
2. Go to phone settings>Bluetooth>ON.
3. Go back to settings>Personal Hotspot>ON.

For ANDROID users: (Example only, older devices may require a different process)
1. Please connect your phone and your multimedia system to Bluetooth.
2. Go to phone settings>wireless & networks>tethering & portable hotspot>Bluetooth tethering.

MyT

MyT | Multimedia

Life happens when you connect

MyT | Connected Services